THE NEWS OF BROOKLYN.

CAME HOME IN A HURRY.

WOODRUFF AND DADY RETURN TO BROOKLYN FROM ALBANY.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS SUMMONED TO MEET THEM—DIVIDED OPINIONS AS TO ROOSEVELT'S CHANCES.

Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff and Michael J. Dady, chairman of the Republican Executive Committee, were in Albany, on their way to Saratoga, on Friday afternoon when they heard of the plan of the friends of Governor Black and Insurance Commissioner Payn to spring upon the Republican Convention the charge that Colonel Roosevelt is ineligible for the nomination for Governor. Instead of continuing their journey they hurried back to Brooklyn by the first train. Before they started back, however, they sent a number of telegrams requesting the Kings County delegates to meet them at Mr. Dady's office, in Court-st., yesterday forenoon. When Mr. Dady and the Lieutenant-Governor reached the office at 10:30 o'clock the street looked as if a Republican County Committee meeting was in session. Scores of well-known Republicans were on hand, and there was suppressed excitement on account of the sensation sprung in the morning papers concerning Colonel Roosevelt's eligibility. Messrs. Dady and Woodruff apparently held the opinion that in case Colonel Roosevelt is dropped Senator Platt and his friends would take up General Stewart L. Woodford, and as this would kill Mr. Woodruff's chances of nomination even more surely than the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt, they wanted to get a chance to "round up" the Kings County delegates in the interest of the Lieutenant-Governor. The attempt was not exactly a success, and both men later took the train for Albany in a troubled state of mind.

Mr. Dady expressed the opinion that Colonel Roosevelt could no longer be considered. He said that the publication of the assessment affidavit had put Colonel Roosevelt "on the run," and that he could not safely be taken up. The Lieutenant-Governor, Walter B. Atterbury and Mr. Dady retired to Mr. Dady's private office and held a long conference. Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff is quoted in a Brooklyn evening paper as saying:

"I am afraid that the affidavit ends all chances for Mr. Roosevelt as a gubernatorial candidate so far as the delegates are concerned. Just what I think of the affidavit I cannot say. As a layman I cannot well express my views on the legality of a document upon which Supreme Court Justices have given their opinions. So far as I can learn, those Justices are not all in accord, but the fact is that many of them hold that in declaring his residence was Washington Colonel Roosevelt gave up his residence in New York State and lost his right to a nomination for Governor. I have held no conference since I have been here, and will go right back to Albany this morning. I confidently believe now that Mr. Black will be nominated, and most assuredly will win at election time and will be the next Governor of New York State."

In the outer office of Mr. Dady were a number of delegates waiting to see what they had heard of the matter. Harry A. Hanbury was one of the first to see Mr. Dady. He said he was with a group of men who were waiting to see Mr. Dady. He said he was with a group of men who were waiting to see Mr. Dady. He said he was with a group of men who were waiting to see Mr. Dady.

"You came home rather unexpectedly, didn't you?"

"Yes, I had some urgent business to attend to," said Mr. Dady.

"And I suppose the Lieutenant-Governor had some of the same kind of business?"

"Well, I don't know," said Dady.

"Well, I don't know," said Dady.

"You came down to round us up, and I want to assure you that the Kings County delegates will be on hand to see your finish. You came back here to kill off Roosevelt if you could, and you know it."

"I came back here to settle Papa Woodford. If you want to know," said Dady. "How do you stand on that?"

"I'm with you on that," quickly responded Hanbury.

"And then who will you have left?"

"Theodore Roosevelt," said Hanbury. "He'll be nominated unless he dies before the convention. He'll be nominated unless he dies before the convention. He'll be nominated unless he dies before the convention."

THE RODE A WHEEL TO GIVE THE ALARM.

Mrs. Jessie Boerum, of Greenport, Long Island, and Miss Adelaide Wells, of Jersey City, who was visiting her, were cooking yesterday morning over an oil stove in the kitchen. Miss Wells turned the wick too high, and the stove exploded. Instantly the whole room was in flames and the two women rushed out to get help. The fire was so fast as possible to inform the Fire Department. Her cry of "Fire" was taken up by the village bells were rung, and all the fire companies responded. When they reached the house their services were not needed, as Captain E. of the 125th Regiment Fire Company and "Boss" Maynard, the first to arrive, had extinguished the flames.

METHODISTS TO CELEBRATE.

GREENPORT TO HOLD AN ANNIVERSARY LASTING A WEEK.

SEVENTY YEARS AGO THE FIRST PASTORATE IN THE VILLAGE WAS ESTABLISHED. AND THE OCCASION IS TO BE COMMEMORATED IN FITTING STYLE.

The Methodists of Greenport and the adjacent neighborhood will today begin a week's celebration of the seventieth anniversary of the founding of Methodism in Greenport at the Methodist Church in that village, of which the Rev. William J. White is pastor. The programme begins this morning with a love feast, the Rev. W. H. Wardell presiding, followed at 10:30 o'clock by a sermon from the Rev. Dr. S. L. Beller, of the American University, at Washington. There will be meetings of the Sunday-school and the Epworth League, and to-night Dr. Wardell will preach. The programme for the week is as follows:

Monday—Interdenominational service, the Rev. F. G. Beebe, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Cutchogue, N. Y., presiding. Fellowship in prayer and song. Brief addresses by the pastors of the other churches of the village.

Tuesday—Henry B. Merrill presiding. Reunion of former pastors. Short addresses from those present, and a service of prayer and song.

Wednesday—Address by the Rev. Joseph P. Sullivan, D. D., of Patuxent, N. Y., on "Methodism in the Past." A service of prayer and song.

Thursday—Social gathering and supper in the chapel at 5:30 p. m. Following the supper at 8:15 p. m. in the chapel a service of prayer and song.

Friday—Lecture on "The Man of Epworth," by the Rev. R. S. Fardington, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., at the "Man of Epworth."

Sunday—Lecture on "The Man of Epworth," by the Rev. R. S. Fardington, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., at the "Man of Epworth."

The first Methodist to hold a pastorate at Greenport was the Rev. Cyrus Foss, father of the present Bishop Foss, and this was in 1828. Mr. Foss organized the first Methodist society. The first church was built in 1832, and the first pastor was the Rev. John H. Brown. The church was burned in 1854, and the present church was built in 1854. The church was burned in 1854, and the present church was built in 1854. The church was burned in 1854, and the present church was built in 1854.

THEIR DIFFERENCES SETTLED.

AN AMICABLE ARRANGEMENT MADE TO HAVE BEEN MADE BY THE STOCKHOLDERS OF JOURNEY & BURNHAM.

It is said that at a recent conference of the stockholders of the Journey & Burnham firm of Journey & Burnham an amicable settlement was reached between the opposing factions. It was decided that a change of management would be for the best interests of the stockholders. Men well known in the firm were to be put into the new Board of Directors. It is understood that all the proxies, the contest for control of which has been waged so fiercely for some weeks, will at the annual meeting to be held on October 3 be cast by Messrs. Dady and Boyd.

A CASE FOR PROFANITY.

From The Brooklyn Times.

Probably more swearing has been done in the course of a year in the corner of Malbone-st. and Nostrand-ave. than anywhere else in the city. At that point one line of Nostrand-ave. cars turns around to go to go to Prospect Park, while every other car goes out to Flatbush, Vandewater Park and Bergen Beach. People who take the cars marked on the side "Nostrand-ave." often find themselves on a Flatbush car they will ask for a transfer to the Park. "Don't need no transfer," they will be told. "You can get on a Park car at that corner and you will be asked for no fare. But if you happen to be on a car and want to go to Flatbush or Bergen Beach, the answer is: 'Don't give no transfers, you'll have to buy another ticket.' Hence the swearing at the inconsistency of the trolley management.

Our Great Annual Comparison Sale.

A marshaling of unparalleled facts and prices. A selling of merchandise lower than in any part of the world.

"Cause and effect, means and ends, seed and fruit; the effect already blooms in the cause, the end pre-exists in the means, the fruit in the seed." Two cooks with the same receipts can't bake bread of equal quality, and only one in a dozen has the knack or skill to make it good. There's the same but larger truth in the manufacturing, the buying, and the selling of merchandise. This Comparison Sale of our illustrates the fact, it is the sowing and the harvesting. It introduces, those of you who are unacquainted, to the cause and the effect, our methods and genuine goods. And gives you the opportunity to buy the best merchandise of every description lower than the same quality of goods have ever been sold in any part of the world, in fact in many instances 20 to 50% less than the so-called "great bargains." In truth, a Comparison Sale, and the items here enumerated give but hints of the advantages we offer you in every department. Remember that at all times we guarantee the price of every article we sell, so you can't possibly find the same goods at less money. If you like our merchandise buy it in full confidence that the price is as low or will be made as low as anyone else cares to quote.

CHILD TRIED TO CHECK RUNAWAYS.

A SIX-YEAR-OLD LAD'S HEROIC ATTEMPT THAT ENDED IN DEATH.

David Condon, six years old, of No. 42 Sixteenth-st., sat alone on the high seat of a coal cart on Friday afternoon when the horses dashed down West-st., and with all the strength of his tiny arms tried to check the horses. In his efforts to do so the boy was jolted from the seat and rolled under the wheels. An ambulance was summoned and the boy was taken to his home. In spite of the efforts of the doctor hemorrhages set in, and death soon followed.

The driver of the coal cart was John Martin, of Third-ave., and Eighth-st., in the employ of Welch & Quinn, coal dealers. Martin left the wagon at Seventeenth-st., near Third-ave., with no one in charge but the boy. On the ground of carelessness the man was arrested and locked up pending a hearing.

A POLICEMAN BADLY BEATEN.

TWO MEN ATTACKED MAYLAND AND FOULDED HIM INTO INSUBMISSIBILITY.

Frank Bauman, of No. 210 Humberd-st., and Joseph Ulrich, of No. 329 Humberd-ave., were held in Federal hall each yesterday by Magistrate Lemon, in the West-st. police court, for a hearing on a charge of felonious assault. The men were arrested early yesterday morning after having assaulted Policeman Mayland, of the Humberd-ave. station. The assault took place in the apartments of Bauman's mother, at No. 228 Humberd-ave.

Bauman has not lived at his home for some time, but was in the habit of answering his mother at No. 228 Humberd-ave. He was called to the police for protection, and Policeman Mayland, on whose post the woman lives, was instructed to keep a sharp lookout for Bauman. About 1 o'clock yesterday morning the policeman saw Bauman and Ulrich enter the hallway of the house, and ordered them away. They refused to go, and managed to reach Mrs. Bauman's apartments. Mayland followed them, and Bauman struck him twice with smothering fists. Mayland's helmet was smashed and he was made insensible. When he revived he went to the street and rapped for help. Two other policemen responded, and when they went to the Bauman apartments they found the doors barricaded. The doors were forced and the policeman's assailants fled under arrest, after a lively fight. An ambulance surgeon dressed Mayland's injuries. He was so weak from the beating he had received that he went to his home.

THE FUNERAL OF THEODORE FISHER.

The body of Theodore Fisher, senior vice-commander of G. K. Warren Post No. 26, Grand Army of the Republic, who died on Wednesday, was buried yesterday morning in Evergreen Cemetery. The funeral was held on Friday evening at Mr. Fisher's home, No. 901 De Kalb-ave. A number of members of Company E, of the 125th Regiment War Veterans' Association, of which Mr. Fisher was a member, attended the funeral.

THEY DO NOT LIKE THE CHANGE.

POLICEMEN AFFECTED BY THE SHAKEN UP IN QUEENS GREATLY DISSATISFIED.

Almost without exception, the policemen sent to duty in the Borough of Queens in January, when they were transferred from New York City, have been transferred to their old precincts in Manhattan and Brooklyn. The change has given rise to a lot of dissatisfaction among the men. The patrolmen from Flushing, Jamaica, Newtown and other stations were sent away, and new men were sent to take their places. These men supposed their transfers to duty in Queens meant that they would be left in the borough-permanently. They objected at first to doing duty in the country, but began to like it, and many of them, being old men and having families, last spring moved their families to their new locations. Some of them, however, while in a number of cases the men, having a little money, purchased homes and settled down to take things comfortable for the rest of their lives. None of them supposed they would be changed again unless it was from one adjoining precinct to another.

The number of men transferred to the borough to replace those transferred back to the two main boroughs is not as great as the old number, because the courts have reinstated some of the officers who did duty prior to consolidation, and these men had to be provided for. These men are not as happy as they might be, for under the latest transfer, instead of going back to the stations where they were on duty before consolidation, they are scattered in the care of the Flushing police, several of them have been sent to Newtown and other precincts.

Among the men transferred was Patrolman Henry Fischman, who belonged to the old Long Island City police. He was appointed a captain and was in the habit of being transferred to the Flushing police. He was transferred to the Flushing police, and he was transferred to the Flushing police. He was transferred to the Flushing police, and he was transferred to the Flushing police.
